The material on this website is provided by SLSA on the understanding that users exercise their own skill and care with respect to its use. Beach safety is a serious consideration. In particular, surf conditions are variable and therefore any information on this website should not be relied upon as a substitute for observation of local conditions and an understanding of your abilities in the surf.

SLSA also confirms that links to external web sites are inserted for convenience and do not constitute endorsement of material on those sites, or any associated organisation, product or service. SLSA may collect information through the website (click here for a copy of the SLSA Privacy Policy).

SLSA is not liable to users of the website for any loss or damage however caused resulting from use of the website. SLSA is not responsible for, and it does not endorse, the opinions, advice or recommendations posted by users of any public forum, and SLSA specifically disclaims any liability in connection with any public forum.

SLSA reminds you to always swim between the red and yellow flags and never swim at unpatrolled beaches.
