Subject	Advancing Women in Leadership Program 2027 – Applications Open!
Information	Ready to take the next step in your leadership journey? Applications are now open for SLSQ's 2027 Advancing Women in Leadership Program, designed to support women in surf lifesaving to build confidence, strengthen their leadership skills and create positive change within their clubs and branches. Facilitated by award-winning leadership advisor Michelle Redfern, the program combines an in-person workshop in Brisbane on 27–28 February with four online sessions throughout March and April. Whether you're already in a leadership role or looking to grow your confidence and explore new opportunities, we encourage you to apply. Applications close Saturday, 14 November 2026.
