Subject	Online Disability Awareness & Confidence Workshop
Information	Surf Life Saving Queensland has partnered with Get Skilled Access, to increase our understanding and the inclusion of people with disability within our clubs and community. This will enable all members, volunteers and staff from all backgrounds and abilities to have the same experiences, opportunities and feel welcome across all levels of our organisation.
	Join the team from Get Skilled Access for a 60 – minute engaging online session to increase your disability Awareness and Confidence.
	Date: Thursday 20 th March
	Time: 6pm AEST
	Registration Link: Disability Confidence Workshop
	Attached is the flyer for your reference.
	The session will be facilitated by Get Skilled Access consultants who have disability lived experience with a focus on neurodiversity. You will learn about:
	Understanding disability and accessibility
	The language of disability and how to talk to someone with disability
	Explore the impact of misconceptions and unconscious bias
	You will also have a chance to ask the questions you want to ask of people with lived experiences of disability in a safe space with a dedicated "ask us anything" segment.
	Who are Get Skilled Access
	Get Skilled Access is a disability, accessibility and inclusion consulting organisation founded by Paralympian, wheelchair tennis grand slam champion, disability advocate and 2022 Australian of The Year Dylan Alcott AO. It's our mission to help organisations understand disability and the opportunities to create a more inclusive and accessible experience for the 5.5 million people in Australia living with disability.
