Authority	This Policy is made under clause 39 of the SLSA Constitution. It is binding on all Members of SLSA and is to be interpreted in accordance with the SLSA Constitution.

1 PURPOSE

This policy is intended to provide Surf Life Saving Australia's (SLSA) staff, Members and volunteers with a framework to guide their use of social media in a manner that is consistent with the organisation's mission.

This policy applies to all parties (staff, members and volunteers). SLSA expects its staff, Members and volunteers to use social media in accordance with this policy.

This policy only applies to staff in State Centres, Branches or Clubs where those Surf Life Saving (SLS) entities do not have an existing social media policy. Where an SLS entity does not have an existing social media policy, it may choose to elect that this Policy applies to its employees.

SLS exists to save lives, create great Australians and build better communities. Communications and representations made by and within the SLS community should reflect this mission.

2 DEFINITION

Social media is the collective of online communications channels which may be structured around or in conjunction with community-based input. These channels will generally allow users to participate in an online community which may or may not reflect an offline community through online collaboration, content sharing/viewing, and chat functions.

Social media channels can include but are not limited to:

- a. Social networking sites like Facebook, LinkedIn and Google +;
- b. Video and photo sharing sites such as YouTube, Pinterest, Snapchat, Instagram, TikTok, and Vimeo;
- c. Blogs, including personal and corporate blogs such as Wordpress accounts;
- d. Comments left on blogs hosted by media outlets e.g. smh.com.au;
- e. Micro-blogging sites such as Twitter;

- j. Online dating sites such as Tinder, Bumble and RSVP;

- m. Livestreaming sites and apps such as Twitch and Periscope.

3 SCOPE

This Policy applies to SLSA staff, Members, and volunteers who represent SLSA, both in Australia and overseas. This includes, as far as practicable, suppliers, partners and contractors (in this Policy Social Media Users).

Due to the unique nature of SLS in Australia, the boundaries between a Member's profession, volunteer time and social life can often be blurred. It is therefore essential that Members make a clear distinction between what they do in a professional capacity and what they do, think or say in their capacity as a volunteer for SLSA. SLSA considers all Members of SLSA as its representatives.

This Policy should be read in conjunction with SLSA's Member Protection policy and code of conduct.

As noted above, this Policy does not apply to staff of State Centres, Branches or Clubs in their capacity as staff of those entities, and where those entities have an existing social media policy. Where the staff of State Centres, Branches or Clubs are also members of SLSA, this policy will apply to those persons in their capacity as members of SLSA.

In specific reference to social media:

- a. Partners or sponsors of State SLS entities may not imply association with SLS as a national movement (i.e. referring to themselves as 'proudly supporting Surf Life Saving Australia', 'SLSA' or 'supporting Surf Life Saving.'). If their association is with a State entity rather than the national entity, they may only refer to the State body (i.e. “Supporting Surf Life Saving New South Wales” for example).
