Club & Branch Communication

Subject	Start of Summer Briefing – Club Captains and Patrol Captains
Information	As summer quickly approaches, Club Captains and Patrol Captains are invited to join our online Start of Summer Briefing. This practical session will provide timely updates, operational insights and useful resources to help clubs prepare for the busy summer season ahead. When: Thursday 26 November, 6:30 pm–8:00 pm (approximately) Where: Online Some of the points we will cover are: • Weather outlook and seasonal considerations • Rescue activity and beach visitation hot spots to date • Key changes since the start of the season • How the AI risk prediction tool can help shape patrol numbers • Upcoming workshops and opportunities for clubs to promote • Approaches to managing periods of low patronage/inclement weather Please register via the link below and join us for this important briefing.
Links	Register Here